18. [REDACTED] LIAISON I sat in on a session between John McMahon, AD/DCI/IC, and Jim Fellenbaum, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, as a preview for the 16 March session on the reclama on the IC Staff FY 77 supplemental. Fellenbaum will try for a mark-up immediately following our session on 16 March. He explained why we should not expect support on the official representation allowances, but seemed most supportive of other elements in the reclama following Mr. McMahon's explanation. Fellenbaum particularly questioned the size of the budget group and the need for the IC Staff, as opposed to the DDI, to get into the application of systems analysis to intelligence evaluations.

Mr. Walsh suggested to Senator Anderson that perhaps arrangements might be made for him to come out on a Saturday. The Senator said his office would get in touch with us.

Miller said he had seen them and agreed that they were unacceptable.

12. [] LIAISON I called Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and asked if he knew if the Senate Armed Services Committee will hold hearings on the CIA budget. Childs felt certain that the Senate Armed Services Committee will not hold hearings on the Agency's budget and has deferred to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. He thought this was arranged between the Chairmen of the two Committees. He suggested that we not raise the subject of budget hearings with the staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee since this might complicate the present arrangement.

22. [] LIAISON I talked briefly with Libby and Beverly, in the office of the Joint Economic Committee, about receipting for classified documents that we send to Committee General Counsel, Richard Kaufman. I noted that, to our knowledge, Minority Counsel, George Krumbhaar, is the only other cleared Committee staffer besides Kaufman, and should sign receipts for documents in Kaufman's absence. If neither is available when a courier arrives, the courier should return the document to us and let us try again another time.

23. [] LIAISON I called Anne S. Wright, Director of Constituent Services for Vice President Mondale, to report our receipt of a constituent inquiry and meet the 48 hour deadline for an interim reply which was requested on the memorandum forwarding the inquiry. Wright appreciated the call and said to ignore the 48-hour note; the form is an old one (from Rockefeller days?) and the office is just using up the leftover copies.

24. [] FBIS Winslow Wheeler, of Senator Jacob Javits' (R., N. Y.) office requested a copy of an article on Soviet dissidents which appeared in the 7 March Soviet Union FBIS Daily Report and a translation of a television show on Anti-Soviet activity that appeared on 22 January. Both items were sent to him.

26. [] LIAISON Received a call from Stan Taylor, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who said one member of the Committee staff had additional suggestions for the preliminary Micronesia statement. Taylor characterized all but one change as editorial, but wanted me to check on the accuracy of the one substantive addition the other staff member had requested. I told Taylor I would check on its accuracy but was positive the Agency would never agree to this information being included in an unclassified statement. I subsequently [] able to reach him.

17.  LIAISON Met with Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding follow-up items from Mr. Knoche's, DDCI, 11 February briefing of the Subcommittee on Budget Authorization. Childs refused to accept a written response to one of the follow-up items from that briefing. He said he would prefer a procedure where all follow-up items from a briefing, including both those questions raised during the briefing and those submitted by the staff afterwards, were transmitted to the Committee in a single package. I pointed out that this meant that all responses would be delayed until we were able to provide answers to all questions. Childs understood this but said nevertheless he preferred the suggested procedure, to which I agreed.
